

BACKGROUND:

When Melvin signed up with a property management company in the area, he knew he needed some help managing his vacation rental. His goals were to maximize revenue, have someone take care of the maintenance on outstanding customer service for his guests. After a few years of not seeing his goals met, he knew it was time to make a switch.

SOLUTION:

While Melvin was looking for a property manager, he came across SkyRun. After spending some time researching SkyRun, he found that they had an excellent reputation in their other locations and decided to give them a shot. his property, and provide Melvin signed on with SkyRun and became the first home under their management in Fort Lauderdale.

RESULTS:

Since signing in 2016, Melvin continues to be impressed with the level of service SkyRun provides. He's most appreciative of how his property manager Leidy is responsive and able to handle any issues that come her way. He says that he's at ease knowing Leidy is managing his property and that she provides great customer service for both him and his guests.

